DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, 127 Montgomery street,
San Francisco.

For the Permanent Cure of all Special and Chronic Diseases, as also all Female Complaints and Diseases of the Nervous System.

THE IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF HUman life annually from secret and chronic diseases, caused this old and reliable institution to be established first in Philadelphia, Penn., in 1860, and afterwards in San Francisco, Cal., in 1864, as a private dispensary, in order to afford the afflicted the best medical and surgical treatment for the above and all other affections and complaints consultations at the institute or by letter, FREE.

To the Afflicted:

Dr. L. J. Czapka would most respectfully inform the public of the Pacific coast that, at the earnest solicitation of his numerous friends, and hundreds of those unfortunately afflicted with disease, he has reopened his MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE and resumed the practice of his profession. The doctor would remind all those who are in need of medical aid, that since relinquishing his very extensive and successful practice in San Francisco, he has visited the principal cities in Europe, inspecting distinctly the most renowned hospitals, and gathering the experience of the most learned in the profession, the benefit from which he offers to all in need of his services. Rheumatic affections, chronic catarrh, diseases of the stomach and kidneys, liver complaints, etc., successfully treated.
Those who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, physical and mental debility, are assured of a permanent cure. Charges moderate. All communications strictly confidential. Medicines sent by express. Address: L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D.,

INFORMATION WANTED.

SAMUEL MURRAY CARR, A CAPTAIN in the New Hampshire regiment, commanded by ex-Governor Harriman, deserted his wife in 1867. Murray assumed the name of L. N. Carter, and went to New York with a woman named Mary Jane Burpee, taking also his children, Lizzie Florence, aged 7 years, and his two sons, Frank Weston Carr, the boys being young.
It is reported that the children have been sent to a Catholic school, and one George E. Lane wrote from San Francisco to New Hampshire, in 1867, that he had recognized Carr, alias Carter, in a theater in that city. Carr, alias Carter, has since been heard of in Texas, it being said that he and Lane were faro dealers there. In Texas, as also in Colorado, Carr was known as Steele. Carr's wife, a nurse in San Francisco, a heart-broken woman seeking her children, and desiring to obtain news of her, is per-suing the press to circulate the above. Any intelligence regarding Carr, or more particularly his disposition of the children, if forwarded to H. R. MIGHELS, editor of the Morning Appeal, Carson City, Nevada, will be thankfully received and promptly transmitted to the mother.

A GOOD PLAN

The most profitable plan for operating in stocks is that of uniting capital of various sources by combining or pooling the orders of thousands of customers and using them as one mighty whole, which has been done so successfully by Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City. By this co-operative system each investor is placed on an equal footing with the largest operator, and profits are divided pro rata among stockholders every 30 days. An investment of $10 would pay $50, making 5 per cent. on the stock during the month. $25 would return $150, or 6 per cent.; $100 would make $1,000, or 10 per cent., and so on, according to the market. Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, June 25th, says: "The combination method of operating in stocks is the most successful ever adopted." New York Independent, September 12th, says: "The combination system is founded upon correct business principles, and no person need be without an income while it is kept working by Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Brooklyn Journal, April 25th, says: "Our editor made a net profit of $101.25 on an investment of $20 in one of Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s combinations." The firm's new circular (copyrighted and sent free) contains "Two unerring rules for success in stock operations," and explains everything. All kinds of Stocks and Bonds wanted. New Government Loan supplied. Best references. Address,
